Education

Located off Wood Lane in White City, Television Centre is close to several highly rated Ofsted, nurseries and schools.

Exceptional education is available for all ages. Elite nurseries and primary schools set the foundation for an illustrious academic career, furthered by a suite of secondary schools recognised as some of the best in the city. Godolphin & Latymer frequently tops the list for best all-girls school while the London Oratory School is highly rated for boys (girls are accepted for sixth form). Higher education is similarly well served, with Imperial College and the Royal College of Art within walking distance.
